PARIS, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1914.

NIMRODS, GUNS AND DOGS IN THE FIELDS.

The game laws regulating the hunting of rabbits and quail expired Sunday, but because of the weather conditions and the fact that the Kentucky Statutes impose a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50 for hunting on the Sabbath, not many hunters took to the fields. It is, of course probable that some hardy spirits, who recognize no law but their own desires, violated the game laws, last Sunday.

In compliance with the State laws a large number of Bourbon county sportsmen have taken out hunting license, County Clerk Pearce Paton reporting a total of 287 issued since last January, when the 1913 license expired, of which 120 were issued during the first fourteen days of November. It is expected that this number will be largely increased as the hunting season grows older, and gets fairly under way.

The game wardens have been very active in this section of the State in their efforts to enforce the laws regarding hunting out of season, and violations of the fishing laws. So far the number of offenders has been very small, and the State Game Warden and his assistants have expressed themselves as being highly satisfied with the existing conditions and the high regard the sportsmen—the real sportsmen—of Bourbon county seem to have for its provisions.

From all accounts there will be a plentiful amount of game for Bourbon county hunters. Rabbits are said to be abundant and quail numerous. However, the crop of quail is not as large as it was thought it would be, but it is said there will be plenty of sport for those who cannot spare the time to journey to far-away fields. As has been their custom, a number of hunters departed Sunday for localities where the birds are most plentiful and in most instances will continue their quest for game for two or three weeks.

The report that hunting would be prohibited until the elimination of the foot-and-mouth disease among cattle, the development of which has caused a rigid quarantine, will have no effect upon hunting in this section, as no quarantine exists in any of the Central Kentucky counties.

MORE "BOOTLEGGING."

When Jerry Wilson (not "our Jerry") stepped from the noon train at Carlisle, Saturday, he was placed under arrest by Chief of Police C. C. Dunn on a charge of bringing liquor into local option territory.

Jerry had been in Paris and had purchased a large market basket which he filled with an assortment of liquor of various qualities and quantities, over which he had gracefully draped a man's size pair of overalls. Thus equipped and fortified, Jerry set sail for land of blackberries and rabbits, but came to grief. Jerry's trial will be held Wednesday, when he will try to show good and sufficient cause for becoming a perambulating bonded warehouse.

BADLY BURNED.

Gertrude Cunningham, daughter of Lee Cunningham, colored, living on the Cane Ridge pike, near Paris, was badly burned about the head and body Friday afternoon, by her clothes catching fire from an open grate, as she was passing by. Medical assistance was rendered, and she was taken in an automobile to a Lexington hospital. Her injuries were pronounced very serious and may have a fatal result.

CHANGE IN FIRM.

In the future the name of the live stock firm of Caywood & McClintock will be known as Caywood, Smith & McClintock, Mr. Joseph B. Smith, of near this city, having purchased a one-third interest in the firm. Mr. Smith is an experienced livestock man, as are Messrs. Caywood & McClintock and the new firm will make a strong combination of brains and business ability.

REFUSED TO TILT QUARANTINE

Government officers acting upon advice received from Washington, refused to tilt the cattle quarantine lid to permit the shipment from Kentucky of large consignments of fat cattle which already had been sold to Eastern packers.

The Federal inspectors and State authorities, at the urgent request of sellers and buyers, wired Washington to determine whether shipments could be sent out under restrictions, but were informed by the head of the Bureau of Animal Industry that it would be inadvisable to release any portion of Kentucky from the quarantine until a thorough investigation by the Federal and State Governments had been completed.

NOTHING OLD BUT THE TITLE.

Everything new but the title, is the way in which Gus Hill describes his 1914-15 offering of the famous Fisher cartoon comedy play "Mutt & Jeff," and their journey "In Mexico" to assist "Uncle Sam" in allying the insurrection. It's the one big laughing bit of the century. It'll be at the Paris Grand, Thursday, Nov. 19th, for one night only.

NO HUNTING SUNDAYS.

The Kentucky Statutes, Section 1223, provide a fine against any person engaged in hunting on the Sabbath. The section referring to reads: "If any person shall hunt game with a gun or dogs on the Sabbath he shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $50 for each offense."

CIRCUIT COURT.

The November grand jury made a partial report to the court at its session Friday and was adjourned until next Friday. The report stated that seventeen true bills had been found against various offenders.

A large number of school boys were brought before the grand jury and quizzed as to the unlawful sale of cigarettes. It is thought that no indictments were returned.

One indictment was returned against Ike Chiles, colored, of North Middletown, charged with "bootlegging" whisky and beer. It is said that other violations of the liquor laws be investigated when the grand jury reconvenes.

Judge Stout overruled a motion for a new trial in the now "celebrated case" of Mr. James McClure, Cashier of the First National Bank, of Paris, against Mr. Jas. D. McClintock, prominent politician and insurance man. This case, which has been through the courts in the past five years, was for $50,000 damages for alleged slanderous remarks and instruments of writing made by McClintock regarding McClure. The case saw-sawed through the courts, and was finally thought to have been laid to rest at the last term of the Bourbon Circuit Court, when the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. McClure against Mr. McClintock for $10,000 as damages for mental suffering, injury to reputation, etc., alleged to have been suffered by Mr. McClure. Different phases of the case have been passed upon by three different Circuit Judges. Mr. McClintock will take an appeal to the Court of Appeals, it is understood.

Business in the big county building was rather slow yesterday, the assigning of Commonwealth cases and the usual hearing of motions being the principal transactions.

The following cases were assigned for Friday:

Commonwealth vs. Wm. Morris, selling malt liquor to a minor.

Commonwealth vs. Dennis Grey, malicious cutting and wounding.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Johnson, burglary.

Commonwealth vs. Jesse Keith, striking and wounding.

Commonwealth vs. Braxton Howard and Lee Samuel Howard, robbery.

Commonwealth vs. Will Barlow, forgery.

Commonwealth vs. Bob Washington, having liquor in possession in local option territory for purpose of sale.

Commonwealth vs. Bill Day, grand larceny.

At Friday's session, the jury in the case of George Simpson returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at six months in the county jail at hard labor.

PARISIAN GOES TO THE PHILIPPINES.

When the good ship "Sideria" slips her cables at the dock at San Francisco, on November 21, bound for the Philippine Islands, the name Fred Batterton, Paris, Ky., will be found on the passenger list. Mr. Batterton will sail on that date for Manila, where he goes as an Inspector of Fibers in the employ of the United States States Government. Mr. Batterton recently received an appointment from the Government in that capacity.

Mr. Batterton has been in the employ of Spears & Sons, of this city, for several years, and was selected for this particular duty by the Government officials on account of his long experience in the hemp and fiber business and by reason of his familiarity with the work.

Mr. Batterton's many friends in this section wish him a safe journey to his new home in the far East and a hope that well-merited promotion may come to him in his line of duty.

OTHER GIFTS FOR THE SUFFERING BELGIANS.

The Woman's Adult Bible Class of the Christian Church will be glad to receive any articles of clothing for men, women or children which they will pack and send to the poverty stricken Belgians. Winter is coming on the suffering in Belgium is terrific. They are without warm clothing or money to buy, so any donations will be gratefully received at the Christian Church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, from 9 in the morning until three in the afternoon.

The ladies of the Baptist and Methodist churches will receive donations on Thursday; the ladies of the Christian Church on Friday, and the ladies of the Presbyterian and Episcopal churches on Saturday, all the donations to be sent to the Christian church, where they will be cared for.

GOOD STRIPPING SEASON.

As a result of a warm gentle rain that began falling late Saturday night and through the afternoon of Sunday, tobacco came in case, and the first tobacco stripping of the season is on. Many farmers awoke from their slumbers at an early hour Sunday morning and went to their barns, throwing open the doors that the dampness of the air might render the tobacco leaves pliable and with the break of day Monday morning thousands of laborers commenced plucking tobacco.

The work of stripping the crop, at least a portion for the opening sales December 1, will progress rapidly. The rain was welcomed by tobacco warehousemen, as well as by business men everywhere as the opening of the tobacco market under business favorable auspices means the turning loose of a lot of money that stimulates business.

BOURBON TOBACCO WAREHOUSE TO OPEN SEASON DEC. 5.

Officials of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse are making extensive preparations looking to the reopening of the loose leaf tobacco market in this city on Saturday, December 5. The house will be open on Monday, Dec. 1, for the reception of tobacco destined for the market sales. A large amount of valuable floor space has been provided for by an addition, which was erected last year. Instead of having three sales weekly, as was the custom last year, the market will open daily.

Weather conditions have been very favorable for affording an excellent season for stripping tobacco, with the result that the growers of the county are rushing the work of preparing the weed for the market. A large number of crops will be consigned to the local warehouse, and all indications point to a most successful opening on December 5.

Only a few crops in the county have been sold, although speculators are beginning to feel the pulse of the market. Growers seem inclined to wait until the opening of the loose leaf market in this and adjoining cities. The quality of the crop in this county, according to competent judges, is excellent, and no doubt record-breaking prices will prevail on the open market.

Buyers who have made a canvass in an effort to secure tobacco, report that the growers are very enthusiastic over the prospects for the 1914-15 season.

An increase in the facilities of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse will make it one of the most convenient places of market in the State.

Messrs. John T. Collins and Ed. Burke are busily engaged in making arrangements for the opening on December 5.

The main floor of the house has a capacity of 200,000 pounds and the new addition will accommodate 100,000 pounds.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

Five young men, one of whom afterward proved to be the son of a well-known Covington Councilman, were placed under arrest here Friday afternoon by the local authorities on a charge of beating their way from Covington to Paris on an L. & N. freight train.

The authority for their arrest came in the shape of a telephone call from the Covington authorities asking that the young men be apprehended and held for them. Upon their arrival here the boys managed to give the police the slip, but were later arrested.

The young men were suspected of having been implicated in the robbery of several stores in Covington recently, but the officers who came from Covington to take them back could not fasten the crimes upon them and they were released, after an exhaustive and complete examination.

The young man who was taken back to Covington and whose name was not given out, is said to be the son of a Covington Councilman, and was in no way connected with the bunch arrested, but came with them on a boyish lark.

HUTCHCRAFT ESTATE VALUED AT $195,287.60.

The appraisers of the assigned estate of R. B. Hutchcraft, grain merchant and farmer of this city, filed their report in the county court here. Under the heading of farm lands the appraisal shows the valuation to be $81,308; city property valued at $38,950; grain seed, etc., $19,783.10; cash, notes and account $18,861.80; bank stock and other stocks and shares $2,775; which together with live stock, crops and miscellaneous effect brings the total to $175,282. In addition to this the report shows a grazing bill of $200, one-half interest in the Hutchcraft & Wheat property appraised at $1,555.25 and warehouse receipts for blue grass from D. S. Gay, of Clark County, which is in litigation, amounts to $1,993.68. The appraisers of the estate were W. D. McIntyre, John T. Collins and S. S. Ardery.

THE TURKEY MARKET.

The market for the Thanksgiving turkey trade at the local pens of C. S. Brent & Bro., and at their pens in Carlisle, Millersburg and Flemingsburg continues good, prices ruling about thirteen cents per pound, on foot for birds delivered at the slaughtering pens.

They will continue to receive turkeys until Wednesday, when the market will close to reopen in December for the Christmas trade. The crop of turkeys is reported as being unusually large, but the birds are mostly poor, thin and of an inferior quality.

Mt. Sterling turkey raisers have not plunged much on the Thanksgiving market, refusing the opening prices of ten to twelve cents, preferring to hold their stocks in hopes of an increased demand and a rising market consequent upon the approach of the Christmas trade.

A. O. STANLEY WILL ANNOUNCE FOR GOVERNOR.

Close friends of Congressman A. O. Stanley say that he undoubtedly will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor and that the announcement may be expected very shortly. Mr. Stanley, who made the race for the nomination to the Senate last summer, will retire from the representative branch of Congress next March.

CHAIRMAN RHEA THANKS KENTUCKY NEWSPAPERS.

It is customary for the community, political parties and politicians to take the newspapers as a matter of course, and accept their help without a realization of its potency.

Because one man in a high place appreciates the position of a newspaper in guiding public opinion, we publish the following personal letter from State Chairman Thomas S. Rhea, and return his solicitations over the result in the same spirit of appreciation of a campaign he so skillfully managed:

Editor Bourbon News,
Paris, Ky.

"In the great victory achieved for the Democratic party, and for Democratic principles in the election on Nov. 3rd, I am aware that one of the most potent factors was the State newspapers, and without their cordial and efficient co-operation our campaign work might have proven a failure.

"When the State Democratic Committee selected me as campaign chairman, I realized that in many ways I had a difficult and responsible work before me. To establish and maintain an organization in the one hundred and twenty counties of the state, to secure means to pay for the work of the headquarters, and to keep in constant touch and communication with every part of the state, required ceaseless and untiring work upon the part of the chairman.

"I endeavored to do my part well and successfully, but I realize how helpless I would have been without the generous aid of the state press. You and your valuable newspaper rendered us most valuable assistance and I write to assure you of my sincere appreciation of what you have done.

"For the success of the ticket, and for the cause of Democratic principles you indeed did much good. I found you ready and willing at all times to generously aid us, and as the state chairman, as well as individually, I wish to thank you gratefully.

"Very truly yours,
THOS. S. RHEA."

MATRIMONIAL.

SANFORD—METCALFE

The Journal-Tribune, published at Knoxville, Tenn., on Thursday, November 11, contains a lengthy account of the marriage of Mr. James G. Metcalfe, of Paris, Ky., Master of Trains for the L. & N. Railroad Company, and Miss Dorothy Sanford, of Knoxville, which occurred in the latter city on Nov. 11. Below is reprinted a part of the wedding notice:

"Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock occurred the wedding of Miss Dorothy Sanford, the elder of the two attractive daughters of United States Judge and Mrs. Edward Terry Sanford, and Mr. James Garrison Metcalfe, of Paris, Ky.

"The groom's parents, Col. and Mrs. J. G. Metcalfe, reside at present in Morristown, N. J., but were formerly residents of Louisville.

"The marriage ceremony was solemnized in the elegant old Woodruff homestead—the palatial home of Captain W. W. Woodruff—the maternal grandfather of the bride. In this old home the bride was born and many years of her childhood and young ladyhood have been happily passed beneath this hospitable roof.

"On Wednesday evening an improvised altar was arranged at the end of the broad entrance hall and the several rooms opening into the hall were thrown together by the sliding doors. At the hour of the ceremony an orchestra rendered the wedding march as the bridal procession advanced to the altar. First came Rev. Dr. Whitaker, who performed the ceremony. The groom and his best man then appeared. Miss Anna Magee Sanford was maid of honor to her sister and the lovely little niece of the bride, Miss Margaret Pauline Sanford was the flower girl.

"The little flower girl descended the main staircase to the hall in advance of the maid of honor and the bride followed. At the foot of the stairs the bride was met by her father, who gave her away at the altar.

"The bride's gown was of white satin with net flounces and crystal trimmings. She wore a real lace veil, which had been worn by her paternal aunts, Mrs. Ault and Mrs. Fisher, on their wedding days.

"The bride carried a sheath of Easter lilies.

"Miss Anna Magee Sanford wore a gown of pale green satin with tulle and trimmings of silver. Her bouquet was of pink Killarney roses and maiden-hair fern.

"The dainty little flower girl wore a white lingerie frock with blue sash and hair ribbons and wreath of pink bridesmaid roses and bore an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses with the white lace holder.

"After the ceremony the bridal couple received in the drawing room with Judge and Mrs. Sanford. Also in the receiving line were Captain Woodruff and Col. and Mrs. Metcalfe, parents of the groom.

"Mrs. Sanford was gowned in black velvet with point lace and wore her diamonds.

"Mrs. Metcalfe wore a gown of black lace over white satin. Her ornaments were pearls and diamonds.

"Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Sanford's sisters, Mrs. Daisy Woodruff Meek, Mrs. Samuel G. Shields, Mrs. Wallace Woodruff, Mrs. A. F. Sanford, Mrs. Hubert Fisher and Mrs. Hugh W. Sanford.

"Throughout the entire house were arranged a profusion of chrysanthemums and fall flowers with the autumn foliage.

"The magnificent array of bridal gifts was on display in the library and living room.

"The punch bowl was presided over by Miss Marguerite Metcalfe, of New Jersey; Miss Mildred Bacon, of Washington, and Miss Helen Black, of Ohio, who were among the guests from a distance in Knoxville for the bridal occasion.

"A wedding supper was served in the dining room. The bridal table was decorated with Easter lilies and ornamented with cut glass candlesticks burning with wax tapers under white shades.

"The bride and groom are to spend their honeymoon at White Sulphur Springs, Va., and will be at home to friends in Paris, Ky., after Thanksgiving.

Upon their arrival in Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe will go to housekeeping in the Cain property on Main Street, opposite the Catholic Church.

ONE HUNDRED JOIN CHURCH AT NORTH MIDDLETOWN.

ONE HUNDRED JOIN CHURCH.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church resulted in 100 additions. This was one of the most interesting meetings ever held here and in the number of additions was probably the largest held in 50 or 60 years. Elder John Christopherson, who held the meeting, is one of the most eloquent preachers in the Christian Church. There had been no protracted meeting here for three years and the harvest was ripe. One of the most remarkable things about the meeting was the large number of adults and older people who joined. There were only three under 14 years of age; 18 under 16; 57 over 21; 30 over 40; 20 over 50; 11 over 60; 7 over 70 years. Seven were baptized Wednesday morning, Nov. 11, whose ages averaged over 70 years. There were 55 confessions—21 from other Christian Churches, 18 from the Methodist, 3 from the Baptist, 2 from the Presbyterian, and 1 restored.

There were 50 men and boys, and 50 women and girls; 33 men and boys, and 27 women and girls were baptized—total 66, including 11 married couples.

The following were those that joined:

BOURBON CHILDREN TO THE RESCUE.

A noble movement has been started by the Lexington Leader in forming the Children's Little Belgium Society of Central Kentucky.

The movement will bring relief to many little homeless, fatherless and starving Belgians.

It is the most worthy subject of charity that Central Kentucky has ever been permitted to subscribe to. It is the finest sentiment possible to create in our children, when we ask them to help feed and clothe the starving babies of stricken Belgium.

"In this case, as in so many others, the innocent suffer first and worst, and of all appeals, those from agonized childhood comes nearer reaching the hearts of men and women who are at all worth while."

Bourbon children can now easily become members of this "Little Belgians Society" by leaving their names, age and address at the News office, accompanied by the membership fee of ten cents.

Children over sixteen may become honorary members by leaving their names and address, accompanied by a membership fee of not less than twenty-five cents.

There is a limit in only one direction for the membership fees of honorary members—minimum fee of twenty-five cents. The maximum limit is the blue sky.

The favored people of Bourbon will not forget these foreign friends in their greatest time of need, and they will accept this noble opportunity to impress on the minds of their own children the thought of doing for others championing defenseless little ones and relieving the suffering of fellow children.

Remember this is no time for delay. One million Belgian children are homeless, without food or clothing. A few cents now are worth more than dollars in the future.

Do not delay joining the Society. If you are over sixteen you can only become an honorary member, because this is a children's movement for children, but when you become an honorary member makes it as "honorary" as your purse will allow you.

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION.

It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.

Rheumatism

Just put a few drops of Sloan's on the painful spot and the pain stops. It is really wonderful how quickly Sloan's acts. No need to rub it in—laid on lightly it penetrates to the bone and brings relief at once. Kills rheumatic pain instantly.

Mr. James E. Alexander, of North Harpwood, Me., writes: "Many strains in my back and hips brought on rheumatism in the sciatic nerve. I had it so bad one night when sitting in my chair, that I had to jump on my feet to get relief. I at once applied your Liniment to the affected part and in less than ten minutes it was perfectly easy. I think it is the best of all Liniments I have ever used."

EXCAVATION OF VERA CRUZ POSTPONED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have decided not to fix a date for the evacuation of Vera Cruz by the American troops until it is determined which faction can dominate that section of Mexico sufficiently to carry out the guarantees asked by the United States as a prerequisite to its withdrawal.

Gen. Candido Aguilera is in command of most of the troops in the immediate vicinity of Vera Cruz and is believed to be loyal to Gen. Carranza, who is in open conflict with the national convention, which declared Gen. Eulalio Gutierrez provisional president of Mexico.

The President is unwilling to withdraw the troops until the various guarantees asked for can be enforced and there is no danger that some other faction on becoming dominant will disclaim responsibility for negotiations hitherto conducted with Gen. Carranza.

WANT CAROTHERS REMOVED. MEXICO, CITY, Nov. 13.—Foreign Minister Fabela, through his newspaper, El Pueblo, Thursday morning called on President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan to remove from office George C. Carothers, confidential agent of the State Department with Villa. Without any mincing of words, Carothers is charged with persistent intrigues in Mexican politics, "for motives which are neither diplomatic nor disinterested."

REMARKABLE CURE OF GROUP.

"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers. (Nov.) adv.

EARLY WAR NEWS

GERMANS SAID TO HAVE LOST 90,000.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Telegraphing from the north of France under date of Thursday, the correspondent of the Times says:

"According to German officers who have fallen into the hands of the allies, about half a million men were fighting against the allies at the beginning of the great battle on the Yser."

"These officers put the German casualties at 90,000. In one case a regiment of infantry made up from the marine service and which was 1,800 strong, had only eight men left. Five generals were killed and the losses among the officers were extraordinary heavy."

MILLION MORE TROOPS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—It is reported in the parliamentary lobbies that Premier Asquith will on Tuesday ask Parliament's sanction for the raising of 1,000,000 additional troops for the purpose of the war.

Much interest is shown in the financing of the war. It is understood the Government intends to issue a war loan of $1,000,000,000 or more, probably at 4 per cent. and redeemable within ten years.

$2-YEAR OLD BRITISH GENERAL TO FRONT.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts of Kandahar is going to France. The official announcement making this fact public says the famous General is going into the war zone "to see the Indian troops." Lord Roberts was born in Cawnpore, India, eighty-two years ago.

MONEY TO TRANSPORT FOOD-STUFFS TO STARVING BELGIANS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The American Commission for Relief in Belgium has received a check on the Bank of England for $3,000,000, which was contributed by prominent Belgians interested in the relief of their countrymen. With the work in Belgium well under way the commission is now prepared to assume the permanent task of keeping Belgians supplied with food. In this connection it has made the following statement:

"The American Commission for Relief in Belgium, Thursday, received a check for $3,000,000, which, it is estimated, will be necessary for the transportation of food-stuffs for the next three months from various parts of the world into Belgium. This money has been advanced to the commission under the guarantee given by various Belgian Relief Committees and important Belgians."

GERMAN AVIATORS NEAR LONDON.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—(By wireless.)—According to information given out to the press to-day in official quarters German aviators have flown over the English seaports of Sheerness and Harwich.

Sheerness is a fortified seaport in Kent at the mouth of the Thames. It is about 40 miles from London. Harwich is in Essex and about 70 miles northeast of London.

MRS. EDWARD BURNAM HUME NOTED IN RESEARCH WORK.

A recent issue of the Louisville Herald contains the following appreciation of Mrs. Edward Burnam Hume, well-known in Paris, where she has been a frequent and welcome visitor, and whose success in literary research has brought her more than local fame. "Mrs. Edward Burnam Hume, who is well-known and liked throughout the state, has the distinction of being the first woman in Louisville to make a profession of library research work, gathering data for papers for men and women who are too busy or are unwilling to go through the necessary amount of labor to secure such things for themselves."

"Mrs. Hume has served in the public library, and is well qualified for the work she has undertaken. It was eighteen months ago, when she was in one of the departments of the library, that she realized the need for some one to do research work."

"Her familiarity with the different departments of the library, with its rules and the training she received there, admirably equip her for such work."

"Mr. and Mrs. Hume came with their son and daughter, to Louisville from Richmond served years ago, and they have made many friends in Louisville. Mrs. Hume is interested in club work, and has for some time been identified with a number of organizations."

"Through her large family connection and her own personal charm, she is widely known, and, since deciding to make research work a serious business for herself, Mrs. Hume has been kept busy. Every day requests for data on an endless variety of subjects come to her from all over Kentucky."

"Not only from men and women who are remote from the advantages to be had from proximity of a public library, but from her own townspeople does she have calls and while there is a great variety of subjects on which queries are sent, questions regarding agriculture are in the majority."

"Mrs. Hume says she finds the work absorbingly interesting, and at all hour of the day she may be seen in the different departments of the library poring over volumes great and small."

"Work similar to that being done by Mrs. Hume has become a profitable business to innumerable women and men in such cities as Washington, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other large places, and although she has taken up the work only within the last few weeks, Mrs. Hume has succeeded beyond her brightest expectations."

—The protracted meeting at Hutchison Chapel, which began Nov. 1st, continues with growing interest. Services every night during the week and Sunday.

—The ladies at Old Union will give a supper Saturday night for benefit of the Sunday school and day school. Oysters, ice cream, cake and everything nice.

—Mrs. Frank Fithian was hostess to the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, at her home on Mt. Airy avenue, at 2:30 o'clock.

—The protracted meeting which has been in progress at the Hutchison Chapel closed Sunday. Rev. Mr. Linge's sermons were forceful ones, and were heard by large audiences. A large number of additions were made to the membership.

—The ladies of the Christian Church are invited to come to the church parlors to-day and take part in an all-day sewing, the articles thus made to be sent to the Widows' and Orphans' Home, in Louisville. This is a most worthy cause, and should meet with a liberal response.

—Jellico, Tenn., was chosen as the next place of meeting of the Kentucky State Baptist Association shortly before it closed a four-day session at the First Baptist Church, in Somerset, at noon Saturday. Possibly the most important business transacted at this session was the appointment of a committee to devise ways and means whereby several branches of church work in the State may be incorporated under one head, the belief being general that greater work can thus be accomplished. This committee will report at the next session. A signal honor has been conferred upon Dr. J. W. Porter, of the first Baptist Church, of Lexington, and will serve in that capacity during the coming year.

—Services were held at the Paris churches Sunday morning and night. The meeting at the Christian Church, which had been in progress for the past two weeks, closed Sunday night.

At the Baptist Church, Dr. O. R. Mangum preached in the morning on "Conditions of Fruitfulness" and at night on "Witness and the Record." The ceremony of baptism was administered at the morning service.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at the Presbyterian Church, closed Sunday night. Evangelist T. H. Atkinson's sermons were of a high order, and the increased attendance at each meeting attested the influence exerted by the speaker.

Rev. Geo. H. Harris occupied his pulpit at St. Peter's Episcopal Church at both the morning and evening services, and delivered impressive sermons to his congregation.

At the Methodist Church, Rev. J. S. Sims filled his pulpit at both services. Several recent converts were baptized and received into membership in the church. The Epworth League was addressed at its meeting by Mr. E. L. Mast, Secretary of the Paris Y. M. C. A., on the subject, "The Volunteer Call."

HARRY SIMON

PARIS, KENTUCKY

WHO WANTS TO FIGHT?

A group of High School boys were standing in front of Mann's pool room Friday, discussing the various bad and good points of the opposing teams in the Lexington-Paris High School game at White Park that afternoon. From that the conversation drifted to the European war, suggested by a display of war pictures in the window. One of the boys remarked that he "would just as soon join the army and go to the war as not."

A wise old Confederate, who happened to be standing near, overheard the remark, and thought that it would be eminently proper from his point of view, to bore in; which he did thusly:

"Say, boys, take it from an old campaigner, who has seen four years of this hell they call war, if any of you silly youngsters imagines you would like to go to war and be a 'soldier man,' just start out one of these cold mornings before breakfast, go up Stoner, and dig a trench in a swampy spot, stand in it up to your waist in cold water all day and all night without a mouthful to eat, while all the boys in the neighborhood come around and try to shell you out of your position with rocks. That would be a taste of modern war. And one trial would take the war spirit out of you."

There were several moments of solemn reflection, and as one of the students remarked: "Guess you're right, Mr. ———. Let's go and play a game of pool and forget it."

And Uncle Sam's Army thereby lost another warlike addition.

WHO WILL BE THE "GOAT?"

"There is something doing in newspaper circles over in Paris, Bourbon county. The Democrat, which has been issued for some years as a weekly, has appeared as a tri-weekly. The Kentuckian-Citizen, which is the oldest paper in the State, contemplates making its bow as a daily within the next few weeks. It is at present issued semi-weekly. We see no reason why Paris should not support a small daily. Paris is a good city, located in a wealthy county, and we know of smaller towns in Kentucky and in other States which are maintaining daily papers handsomely."—Frankfort State Journal.

"PIE SUPPERS" POPULAR.

"Pie suppers" have become very popular throughout the rural districts of Bourbon County in order to raise funds for school purposes and other enterprises, and at the same time furnishing social diversion and enjoyment not only for the young folks of the rural villages, but for the older people and for the ever-busy and over-taxed housewives. At the same time the making of pies and other edibles and entering them in a friendly rivalry and competition is a very praiseworthy way of putting into practice the theoretical knowledge obtained in the county schools in that branch of education known as "Domestic Science."

Another popular form of revenue raising along the same line is the ever-blooming "box party," fraught with as much fun to the square inch, because of the uncertainty as to what the box you pay $3 for contains, as an "old hoss" sale in an express company's office.

Did you ever pay $5 for a promising looking box at an "old hoss sale" and then go away into an obscure corner and open it, expecting to find about $83,000 in government bonds, and then to be confronted with about thirty-five cents' worth of patent medicine circulars? If you have, and you bid on a box at a box supper you may know what to expect.

At a "pie supper" held in the Millersburg Public School last week, one pie brought the handsome sum of $4. Some pie!

A number of these "pie" and "box" suppers are scheduled for different points in the county in the next few days. The object for which they are given is a worthy one, and money might be spent on far less worthy causes.

COMING TO THE GRAND.

"Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" is the title of the new production Gus Hill has given to Bud Fisher's famous cartoon picture play, which re-appears at the Paris Grand, Thursday. The play is surely funnier than ever and with a bigger and better cast of performers than when seen here last season, if newspaper comment from other cities can be relied on.

From almost summer-like weather, with a temperature of 75 degrees on Saturday, the mercury fell rapidly Sunday night, following a heavy rain, and hovers close to the freezing point. A hard rain accompanied by a heavy wind, fell Sunday afternoon late and on Sunday night. The hunters welcome the rain with delight. DRESSING FOR SALADS

EXPERT DESCRIBES THREE OF THE BEST YET INVENTED.

What is Known as French Dressing is Perhaps the Most Popular—Economy in Preparing Quantity at a Time.

Tomatoes, lettuce and cucumbers, apples and celery, asparagus, string beans and radishes—all the range of fruits and vegetables—combine in salads in such endless variety that the only law of combination lies in individual taste. Dressings, too, vary, but in them rule must be more nearly followed. These three recipes for salad dressing are given by Miss Cora E. Binzel, instructor in home economics, University of Wisconsin extension division:

French Dressing.—One tablespoonful vinegar, one-quarter teaspoonful onion juice, three tablespoonfuls olive oil, one-eighth teaspoonful pepper, one-quarter teaspoonful salt. Add salt, pepper and onion juice to vinegar. Then add the olive oil, beating until thick and well blended. Use a cold bowl and cold ingredients. The ingredients may be put into a wide-mouthed bottle, corked and shaken until an emulsion is formed. The dressing may be mixed and set in the icebox until chilled; the oil and vinegar will separate on standing and require further beating. Following the correct proportions French dressing may be made in large amounts, kept in a bottle in the icebox and shaken before using.

Sour Cream Dressing.—One-half pint sour cream, two tablespoonfuls lemon juice, one tablespoonful sugar, one teaspoonful salt, one-quarter teaspoonful pepper, one teaspoonful mustard. Beat the cream until it is light and thick; add the other ingredients. Sweet cream may be substituted.

Cream Salad Dressing.—Ten egg yolks, one-half cupful butter, one teaspoonful salt, one tablespoonful mustard, one-quarter teaspoonful pepper, one teaspoonful sugar, juice of two lemons or one-quarter cupful vinegar. Melt the butter, cool it, and when scum cream it. Add the beaten yolks mixed with seasonings. Cook over water until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from fire, add lemon juice, and mix with whipped cream as it is used.

The housewife should plan to prepare a quantity of dressing at a time, keeping it in the icebox, and add sweet or sour cream as it is used. Preparing some foods in quantity is economy of time, fuel and energy.

Salmon, Cucumber Sauce.

One can salmon, one-half tablespoonful salt one-half tablespoonful sugar, one-half tablespoonful flour, one teaspoonful mustard, few grains cayenne, yolks of two eggs, one and one-half tablespoonfuls melted butter, three-fourths cupful milk, one-fourth cupful vinegar, three-fourths tablespoonful granulated gelatin, two tablespoonfuls cold water. Remove salmon from tin, rinse thoroughly with hot water and separate in flakes. Mix dry ingredients, add egg yolks, butter, milk and vinegar. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Add gelatin soaked in cold water, strain and add to salmon. Stand until set. Serve in individual molds with following sauce: Beat one-half cupful heavy cream until stiff, add pinch salt, pinch pepper and two tablespoonfuls vinegar; then add one cucumber, peeled and chopped.

Dark Cake for Thanksgiving.

One cupful molasses, one-half cupful sugar, one-half cupful butter, one cupful milk, three cupfuls flour, two eggs, one-half pound raisins, one-quarter pound citron. Teaspoonful each cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice, one-quarter teaspoonful cloves, three-quarter teaspoonful soda. Bake in a fruit cake tin (large deep tin) two hours with a slow fire.

Spanish Buns.

One and one-fourth pounds of flour, one pound of sugar, half pound of butter, four eggs, a teaspoonful of cream or milk, warmed sufficiently to melt the butter; a tablespoonful of rose-water, two of wine, a grated nutmeg. Make into buns and bake.

Sugar Cookies.

To make sugar cookies take three-fourths of a cupful of fat, one cupful sugar, one egg, one-fourth cupful milk, two teaspoonfuls baking powder, two cupfuls flour, one teaspoonful flavoring or spice. Roll thin, sprinkle with sugar, cut out and bake.

Spanish Omelet.

Fry two chopped onions in two tablespoonfuls of butter. When light brown add two chopped green peppers. Next add one quart of tomatoes. Season to taste, and stew until it reaches a pasty consistency. This is sufficient to fold into a six-egg omelet.

Pumpkin Fritters.

One pint of pumpkin, boiled and sifted, one pint of milk, two eggs, one-half teaspoonful salt, pinch of ginger, one teaspoonful molasses, flour to make a batter stiff enough to drop on griddle as for buckwheat.

To Cut Cheese.

To cut neufchatel or other soft cheese in smooth slices for serving, use a stout thread instead of a knife, as there will be no crumbling or breaking of the slices.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS.

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver,

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

The "G" in "Gnat."

"Spelling's a queer thing," said one boy. "What do they want with a 'g' in 'gnat'?" "It belongs there," replied the other. "It's what you say when one stings you. The only mistake is not putting an exclamation point after it."

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lost of it in Paris, But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help... Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Non one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood. Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidneys cry for help.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Proof of merit in the following statement:

Mrs. Eva Coiper, Main street, Winchester, Ky., says: "Although I never had occasion to use a kidney remedy myself, I can strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for we have taken them in the family with fine results. If the family has taken them with excellent results for pain in the back and kidneys."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Coiper recommends. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Where She Doesn't Understand.

Whenever, says a Macon editor, a fellow tries to be as nice to his wife as he was in the good old days when he was courting her she at once begins to wonder what's the matter with the old fool.

Best Way to Keep Apples.

The best vessels in which to keep apples are crates or baskets that permit ventilation, and also permit handling the fruit to prevent bruising. When it commences to reach its full stage of ripening it is well to sort it occasionally, and remove and use any that are commencing to decay, or that are becoming soft or overripe. Firm specimens can be wrapped in pieces of ordinary newspaper and put in ventilated crates, baskets or barrels in a cool place, and there kept for a longer time than when not so wrapped.

Haydn and Church Music.

Carpani, the poet, once asked his friend, Haydn, "how it happened that his church music was almost always of an animating, cheerful and even gay description." To this Haydn's answer was: "I cannot make it otherwise. I write according to the thoughts which I feel. When I think upon God my heart is so full of joy that the notes dance and leap, as it were, from my pen, and since God has given me a cheerful heart, it will be easily forgiven me that I serve him with a cheerful spirit."

Not the Right Reputation.

Magazine Editor—"No, we cannot accept this story." Agent—"But the author is a man who has acquired a great reputation." M. E.—"Yes, but only in literature."—Boston Transcript.

TAKE TIME TO SMILE

JUST A TRIFLE FASTIDIOUS

M. de Fouquieres, Arbitrator of Elegance in Paris, Wouldn't Even Eat Candy Cigar in Ladies' Car.

A Newport woman, apropos of the Duchess de Gramont's crinoline ball, was talking about Andre de Fouquieres, the arbitrator of elegance in Paris. "M. de Fouquieres is too meticulous in his elegance," she said, with a witty smile. "When a duke visits him, he advances 18 steps. When it's a baron, he advances six steps. When it's an equal he does not advance at all, and when it is an inferior—an American, say—he actually recoils!"

"Oh, yes, M. de Fouquieres is ridiculously meticulous. Once, en route from Paris to Trouville, when he was a little boy, a lady gave him a chocolate cigar. "And what will you do with it?" the lady asked. "Little Andre put the end of the chocolate cigar in his mouth and rose. "I'll go into the smoking compartment and eat it," he said."—Minneapolis Journal.

Rich Pickings.

The British naval officer was on his way to the bank with several bags of prize money.

"Hallo," exclaimed a friend, "what have you there?"

"These," replied the Britisher, "are the fortunes of war that you've so often read about."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Unpatriotic.

"Henry writes that he's joined the Alpha Beta Etas," said Mr. Dawkins, a self-made man. "What's that?"

"It's a Greek letter fraternity," answered Mrs. Dawkins.

"Umph!" snorted Mr. Dawkins. "I'd like to know why he couldn't join something American, instead of taking up with a lot of foreigners."

The Brighter Side.

"This war in Europe is terrible."

"I agree with you. Still, I'm more fortunate than some people."

"How is that?"

"I'm not acquainted with any retired military men who insist on telling me how it ought to be fought."

A Slow Pupil.

"There's many a slip betwixt the cup and the lip, you know."

"Yes. I've heard that quotation before, but lately I've been impressed by the fact that there is many a slip between the initial tango lesson and the attainment of a certain degree of proficiency as a tango dancer."

"Well, did you settle your argument with Colonel Whiffers about the Russian campaign, against the Austrians?"

"No. We decided to suspend our argument until we learned how to pronounce Przemysl."

AND SCARCE, TOO.

Customer—Bring me an extra good steak, and have it very rare. Waiter—Boss, a extra good steak in dis heah restrant's allus very rare!

Precious Finance.

"Johnny!" exclaimed the careful mother. "You have shaken nearly all the money out of your tin bank!"

"Yes'm. I'm not taking any chances on having my little bank bawled out for hoarding the stuff."

Superficial Estimates.

"You can't judge a man by his coat." "No. But in the light of present styles, it is more generous to judge him by his coat than by his hat."

About Gone.

"How is Wasserby's credit in town?" "It must be very low by this time. When I was here three years ago he was giving it oxygen."

FISHING FOR DEATH

Mines or Mackerel All Alike to the Danes.

Stolid Fishermen of the North Sea Go Unconcerned About Their Dangerous Task—Gray the Day of No Fish.

London.—Harold Ashton, correspondent of the Daily News at Esbjerg, Denmark, writes of a visit to the mine sweepers, who are seeking to clear the waters of the North sea and make them safe for merchant and fishing ships.

The correspondent made the trip out to the waters where the mine sweepers were at work in a "sort of lumbering old washing tub fitted with a consumptive little motor and manned by a listless Norwegian and his small son, who is both engineer and navigating officer."

"It is a dreary business," the correspondent continues. "The sea has a nasty pitch to it and we flop sickeningly over heavy, oily waves and say never a word, but squat all humped and sullen behind the tin splashboard of the stinking, sputtering motor."

"We swing round by Fano's sandy and deserted promontory, where the famous golf links lie, and after hours of far niente anything but 'dolce,' we meet the homeward bound mine sweepers—huge, flat-bottomed fishing ships built with great heaviness against the sudden rages of temper this North sea flies into without warning, and rigged very strangely with sails brown and white and patched everywhere like the hinder parts of ancient Dutch trousers."

These lumbering arks, with their shallow draft, are immune from mines, so they can 'fish' for them as though they were no more harmful than mackerel. They hunt in couples, tethered like grayhounds. The leash is a long steel wire tethering ship to ship and sunk to a certain distance. So, very simply, and fairly safely, is this mine angling done, and when the mine is hooked there is a performance something akin to the sudden blowing of a harpooned cachalot . . . and that's all.

"We steered our tub well out of range of the groping hawser, hailed the anglers (sitting humped and nodding over their sport for all the world like Broadland bearm rodsmen), and heard from them that they had toiled all day over a cunningly charted course and had caught nothing. The total bag was 17."

"We turned the squat nose of our washing tub and coughed home wearily to Fano, having raised a quaint corner of the curtain in this bewildering theater of war—men fishing for certain death with the nonchalance of eel dibbers and smoking and drowsing at their work!"

TRIBUTE TO PIONEER WOMEN

Monument at San Francisco Exposition Designed to Perpetuate Love of Motherhood.

San Francisco.—The women of the pioneer era will be exalted in the Pioneer Mother monument, the work of Charles Gaffey, one of America's foremost sculptors, at the Panama-Pacific exposition. This monument, in bronze, is designed to perpetuate a spirit of love and veneration for the women who crossed the plains and, amid the hardships of pioneer life, faithfully played their part in the settlement and civilization of the west of America.

In its design and execution, its freedom from conventionality and especially in its harmony with the theme portrayed, the monument is pronounced by ablest critics worthy of the sculptor, who, in his career of 20 years at home and abroad, has achieved many signal honors.

Bell Telephone Bulletins

11—THE INTRICATE MECHANISM

The switchboard—the most intricate and interesting adjunct of the telephone business—is divided into sections and there are usually three operators' positions in each section. An operator sits at each position, and from this point can reach the line of every subscriber in the exchange. However, only a limited number of subscribers' answering jackets terminate in front of each operator. This causes it to be possible for an operator to connect a calling party with any number on the switchboard, but she can answer the calls of only a few subscribers. Whenever a new section is added to the switchboard it is necessary to run the wires and connect the line of every subscriber into the new section.

Sometimes subscribers fail to answer their telephones promptly and when they do answer the operator says "Number, please," if the calling party has grown impatient and hung up his receiver. Only one operator can answer you when you ask for a number, but any operator at the switchboard can ring your telephone bell. If an operator has a rush of calls those on each side of her come to her assistance and a supervisor is always at hand to help her out.

The work of the operators is interesting and fascinating and is well worth a visit to our exchange.

—Mrs. E. C. Hawkins returned Thursday after a several weeks' visit to relatives in New York and Pennsylvania.

—Mr. J. F. McDaniel was called to Nashville, Tennessee, Sunday, on account of the death of his aunt, Mrs. Irene McDaniel.

—The first student recital of the M. F. C. of the season was given Friday night. The young ladies did nicely and the program was a good one.

—Mrs. Ruth Peed and daughter, Miss Carrie, returned Friday after a several days' visit to Mrs. Fred Bassett, of Mt. Sterling, sister of Mrs. Peed.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold their annual Thanksgiving sale of cakes, pies, fowls and other eatables on Wednesday, Nov. 25th. This is a good opportunity to get your Thanksgiving dinner.

—The students of the M. P. S. gave a pie supper at the school building Friday evening, which was well attended. The pies were prepared by the young ladies and sold at auction, one of them bringing more than $4. More than $17 was cleared.

—Messrs. D. E. Clarke and John Barton left Sunday for Rockcastle county on a hunting tour. Quite a number of our young sportsmen have taken advantage of the opening of the hunting season, leaving here Sunday and Monday for various places to try their luck with quail.

—The first number of the Lyceum course is a lecture by Arthur Walwin Evans, this evening at the M. F. C. auditorium, beginning at 8:25. Mr. Evans comes highly recommended and is one of the most popular platform orators of America. The course is under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. of the College. Better talent is promised this season than for many years past. There will be but three numbers, but the association is paying more for these than they have for courses with more numbers. Season tickets, $1.50; general admission, 50c. Let everybody take advantage of this opportunity.

—We desire to call the attention of our people to the necessity of dealing with home merchants in everything so far as is possible. The motto of everyone should be to live and let live. Our meat markets of late have been much interfered with by people who are not in the business and who come to town peddling meat from wagons—of course they are not depending upon this for a living, as they pay no house rent, hire no butchers or salesmen, have no ice bills. They can afford to sell their meat a little cheaper than it is sold at the meat markets. What is true of the meat business is also true of most every other business in town. Even in our dry goods and millinery business, people do a large part of their buying away from home and then complain because our merchants do not have what they want. There are people here who ride the railroad to Carlisle almost every time they want a spool of thread. Let us encourage our merchants in every department by dealing with them. If you are not going to buy from the home merchants, then do not complain because you can't get what you want. We want a community that is with Millersburg, for Millersburg and of Millersburg and we cannot have this unless we stand pat to all of our enterprises.

—“The Million Dollar Mystery.”—Episode No. 19.—The Underground River—By mistake, a paper intended for Florence is given to Countess Olga. She sends it to the “Black Hundred.” While out riding, Florence recognizes one of the “Black Hundred”—stealthily follows him—sees him enter a cave, which opens by a secret spring. He remains only a few minutes and after he has gone Florence enters the cave. The conspirators return, Florence hides, and daringly secures the paper from them, without their knowing it. Again they leave, but immediately discover their loss. Trapped, Florence dares death by plunging into the underground river. Her escape—her capture—Norton's thrilling battle in the water with her captors are portrayed as the climax of this episode.

In connection with the above, a three-part Eclair feature will be shown, entitled “Adventures in Diplomacy.” A point that is particularly interesting in conjunction with “Adventures in Diplomacy” is the fact that this story is laid around similar conditions to those that existed between Austria and Serbia prior to the present great conflict in Europe. It is such minor incidents that fan the spark of diplomatic dealings into flame and cause nations to enter a conflict. The “Adventures in Diplomacy” is a story of two foreign spies commissioned by their government to secure at all costs a secret treaty which is in possession of the ambassador of Venezuela. This treaty involves the affairs of Venezuela and Mexico and have a deep interest for rival powers.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST SOLDIER DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

Lord Roberts, lovingly known as “Bobs,” said by Emperor William, of Germany, to be “the greatest soldier of modern times,” died in France, Saturday, where he had been visiting the Indian troops of the British army corps. His death was due to pneumonia.

The news of Lord Roberts' death was received by telegraph from Field Marshal Sir John French.

Lord Roberts was born in 1832 in Cawnpore, India. It was in the Indian service that the gallant and efficient Irish soldier achieved his first and lasting fame. It was in South Africa in his later years that this was supplemented and magnified by his achievements in Great Britain's victorious campaign against Boers.

But it was as Field Marshal and Earl that Lord Roberts formally known, it was as “Bobs” that the men of the ranks knew him, loved him and greeted him. In their estimation and that of the admiring public no name could fit him better than this diminutive of his family name and the word meaning “hero” in Hindu.

Showers as he was with honors and titles by his own country, it was not by that nation alone that his military abilities were appreciated.

“The greatest soldier of his time,” were the words used by Emperor William, of Germany, in paying tribute to him.

For more than half a century England has had occasion to take pride in the career of Roberts, the soldier. In nine of her wars he was in the thick of the fighting, and was many times wounded. As he fought he rose from a supernumerary subaltern in the horse artillery to Field Marshal and Commander-in-Chief of all the British armies.

As further rewards he was made a peer of the realm and was the recipient of distinguished orders of which the chief was the Order of The Garter, the most ancient and highly prized of all British orders. This crowning honor came in 1901 after his notable services in leading the British to victory in South Africa.

WHOLESALE INDICTMENTS. FOR ALLEGED VOTE TRAFFIC.

The grand jury which has just adjourned in Pike county returned about 1,125 true bills against citizens of the county, including some of the most prominent business men and leading politicians, charging buying or selling a vote. The indictments were returned under the instructions of Circuit Judge J. M. Roberson at the opening of the court term about two months ago, in an effort to break up the corruption in elections which had become notorious. A special term of court will be held probably in December for the trial of this long list of cases.
